JUNE 11TH, 2014-Baywood Cellars Inc. of Lodi, CA is pleased to announce the results of a very successful 2014 California State Fair Commercial Wine Competition Campaign.

In the ever-competitive Pinot Noir class, which boasts wines from pricy, world famous Pinot growing regions like Sonoma County, our 2012 Baywood Cellars Lodi Pinot Noir held its own in the heady competition and was awarded a Double Gold medal and named the Best of Class of Region.

Our 2012 Baywood Cellars Amador County Zinfandel also had a phenomenal showing in the crowded Zinfandel class, netting a Gold medal. In the Amador County Fair Commercial Wine Competition, whose results were also announced on Monday, it also received a Silver medal. Last but not least, we're also pleased with the 2012 Baywood Cellars Lodi Old Vine Zinfandel's Bronze medal.

The Competitions results exemplify what we are trying to do at Baywood Cellars- To produce the best quality wines possible, from some of the best appellations on Earth, for a reasonable price, so that the value-minded consumer gets everything they wanted out of a bottle of our wine, without breaking the bank.
